Form G-28: understand a representative's USCIS appearance

What does a Form G-28 establish about an immigration representative?

G-28 is the USCIS notice of appearance for an attorney or accredited representative. It identifies a representative in an agency matter; it is separate from a private fee agreement, a state-bar verification and an EOIR court appearance. Check all of those records in their own context.

Check the boxes on screen or by hand. Use the notes area for records to find and questions to ask.

Your preparation checklist

- ☐ Verify the representative's professional status independently.
- ☐ Compare the engagement scope with the agency matter.
- ☐ Review notice and document-delivery selections.
- ☐ Keep a complete signed copy of the appearance.
- ☐ Confirm separate appearances for any court proceeding.
