

YOUR WORKING CHECKLIST

Form I-102: replacement arrival and departure records

What should I research before using I-102 for an arrival-departure document?

I-102 is associated with a new or replacement nonimmigrant I-94 or I-95 arrival-departure document. Start by identifying the record and the agency history. Replacement, online retrieval and correction are different tasks; none should be treated as an automatic extension of status.

Check the boxes on screen or by hand. Use the notes area for records to find and questions to ask.

Your preparation checklist

- ☐ Name the record as I-94, I-95 or another document.
- ☐ Describe loss, retrieval failure or alleged error separately.
- ☐ Gather existing agency and travel records privately.
- ☐ Read current I-102 instructions before choosing a process.
- ☐ Keep status and timing questions for independent review.

Notes and questions to follow up

Source links and current instructions

Sources checked October 25, 2026. Follow current instructions at the linked institution.

USCIS: Form I-102: replacement arrival and departure records

<https://www.uscis.gov/i-102>

Immigrant Insider: Editorial policy and verification status

<https://immigrantinsider.com/editorial-policy/>

Form I-102: replacement arrival and departure records

Return to the complete guide

<https://immigrantinsider.com/forms/i-102/>

General information

This free organizer is not a government form and does not submit an application, establish eligibility, preserve a deadline or replace individual legal advice. Government filing fees and professional services are separate.