

YOUR WORKING CHECKLIST

Form I-360: one petition form with distinct eligibility categories

Why does Form I-360 cover very different special immigrant and family-related categories?

I-360 is shared by distinct categories, including widow or widower, VAWA self-petition and special immigrant contexts such as religious workers or special immigrant juveniles. Its common form number does not create one common evidence list. The precise classification and any connected court or agency record determine the research task.

Check the boxes on screen or by hand. Use the notes area for records to find and questions to ask.

Your preparation checklist

- ☐ Identify the exact I-360 category under review.
- ☐ Read its applicable current instructions.
- ☐ Map records to category-specific questions.
- ☐ Keep sensitive narratives and documents private.
- ☐ Separate the petition decision from later residence steps.

Notes and questions to follow up

Source links and current instructions

Sources checked October 25, 2026. Follow current instructions at the linked institution.

USCIS: Form I-360: one petition form with distinct eligibility categories

<https://www.uscis.gov/i-360>

Form I-360: one petition form with distinct eligibility categories

Return to the complete guide

<https://immigrantinsider.com/forms/i-360/>

General information

This free organizer is not a government form and does not submit an application, establish eligibility, preserve a deadline or replace individual legal advice. Government filing fees and professional services are separate.