

YOUR WORKING CHECKLIST

Form N-336: hearing request after an N-400 denial

How is an N-336 hearing request different from an N-400 interview or a new application?

N-336 requests a hearing before an immigration officer on USCIS's denial of an N-400 naturalization application. It is distinct from a routine interview, a new N-400 and other review procedures. Begin with the complete denial and current instructions, keeping deadlines and strategy for individualized review.

Check the boxes on screen or by hand. Use the notes area for records to find and questions to ask.

Your preparation checklist

- ☐ Locate the full N-400 denial and its instructions.
- ☐ Preserve notice and delivery records privately.
- ☐ Separate a hearing request from a new application.
- ☐ Index the original file and later material distinctly.
- ☐ Obtain timely qualified review of options and deadlines.

Notes and questions to follow up

Source links and current instructions

Sources checked October 25, 2026. Follow current instructions at the linked institution.

USCIS: Form N-336: hearing request after an N-400 denial

<https://www.uscis.gov/n-336>

Immigrant Insider: Editorial policy and verification status

<https://immigrantinsider.com/editorial-policy/>

Form N-336: hearing request after an N-400 denial

Return to the complete guide

<https://immigrantinsider.com/forms/n-336/>

General information

This free organizer is not a government form and does not submit an application, establish eligibility, preserve a deadline or replace individual legal advice. Government filing fees and professional services are separate.