

YOUR WORKING CHECKLIST

Describe a typographic error to the correct immigration record owner

How can I report an immigration–document typo without confusing it with a legal name change or a filing error?

Compare the disputed document with the filed version and source identity record, then identify who issued or maintains it. A typo, a legal change and an incorrect answer in a submission can be different tasks. Use the matching current official route and preserve the result rather than editing the retained notice.

Check the boxes on screen or by hand. Use the notes area for records to find and questions to ask.

Your preparation checklist

- ☐ Identify which document contains the discrepancy.
- ☐ Compare source versions before naming the error.
- ☐ Use the current error route for that record.
- ☐ Preserve the inquiry and any temporary instructions.
- ☐ Keep the original and corrected records together.
