Form I-90: replacing a Green Card and organizing the record

Is Form I-90 used to remove conditions on permanent residence?

No. USCIS describes I-90 as a request to replace a Permanent Resident Card and specifically distinguishes it from removing conditions on residence. Identify whether the question concerns the physical card or a separate residence process before preparing documents.

Check the boxes on screen or by hand. Use the notes area for records to find and questions to ask.

Your preparation checklist

- ☐ Describe the physical card issue in your own records.
- ☐ Keep available card copies private.
- ☐ Gather prior card-related agency notices.
- ☐ Record name or biographical discrepancies and their sources.
- ☐ Check whether removal of conditions is a separate question.
- ☐ Read the current I-90 instructions before relying on a saved form.
