

YOUR WORKING CHECKLIST

Language and communication access when researching immigration legal help

How can I confirm language and communication support before an immigration legal consultation?

Ask what language support is actually available, who provides it and which parts of the proposed service it covers. Separate a translated website from spoken consultation support, an interpreter from legal counsel and document translation from interpretation. Confirm privacy, format and any separate expense directly without inferring capability from a name, nationality or marketing image.

Check the boxes on screen or by hand. Use the notes area for records to find and questions to ask.

Your preparation checklist

- ☐ Ask about the actual conversation rather than the website language.
- ☐ Keep legal advice and interpretation as separate roles.
- ☐ Distinguish spoken interpretation from written document translation.
- ☐ Confirm format, access and privacy before sending records.
- ☐ Clarify cost and continuity of support.
- ☐ Record the arrangement without turning it into a ranking.

A little support for your next step.
